

Your Three-Step Barry University Graduate Application Guide

Whether you've just finished your undergraduate degree or have significant work experience, or anything in between, earning your advanced degree can put you on an upward trajectory toward your ideal career, enhance your earning potential, and provide you with the specialized knowledge and skills to go further. Pursuing your master's, specialist, doctoral, or professional degree is a strong step in the right direction. To begin this journey, you'll want to find the best-fit program for your goals and needs, and I'm certain you can find that at Barry University.

When you're ready, kick-start a more rewarding career by taking the following steps listed below!

1. Discover Barry

Located in stunning Miami, Florida, Barry University offers a wide range of graduate degree programs – more than 50 in total – that can help you enhance your career or go in a new direction. Many of our flexible programs are offered in unique formats to cater to busy working professionals, with evening, Saturday, and hybrid classes available, in addition to our online-only programs. Plus, our classes are small, so you can get personal attention from our experienced faculty. In addition, you'll be glad to hear that about 80% of our graduate students receive some form of federal financial aid, assistantships, and tuition discounts.

2. Find Your Program

Barry has a large variety of on-campus and degree programs so you can choose the one that fits your schedule. Spend some time on our website to learn more about our graduate-level programs (including certificates), which cover everything from accounting and business administration to nursing, education, photography, and theology.

Explore our website to find your perfect program.

3. Apply

When you're ready to submit your application, we'll be ready to consider you for admission! Simply complete your application online and, once you're done, be sure to check these items off your list:

- Pay your application fee
- Have your standardized test scores sent to Barry
- Have your official transcript(s) sent to Barry
- Send us a statement of purpose/personal statement
- Send us your reference list or letters of recommendation, depending on your program requirements

Take note that requirements and deadlines vary by program. For more information, visit our website. Should you have any questions about applying to Barry or admission, programs, financial aid, and more, feel free to give us a call at 305-899-3100 or email admissions@barry.edu.